

Diagnosis and Management of Acute Lumbar & Sacroiliac Joint Conditions

Diagnose Precisely. Treat Effectively.

Course Objectives

At the conclusion of this program, the learner will be able to...

- To gain an exact knowledge of patho-anatomy, physiology, and biomechanics for primary disc-related pathology of the Lumbar Spine.
- The ability to perform a concise clinical examination of the Lumbar Spine.
- Methodology for interpreting the clinical examination to reach a precise clinical diagnosis of the Lumbar Spine.
- The ability to perform effective treatment for primary disc-related pathology through an accurate understanding of surface anatomy and tissue physiology of the Lumbar Spine.
- A framework for prescription of affliction-specific exercises for primary disc-related pathology of the Lumbar Spine.

Participants will receive access to the on-line portion of this course within 2 business days of registration*.

It is STRONGLY recommended course participants complete the on-line portion of this course PRIOR to the in-class portion.

*Access will be set-up for the on-line portion of this course within 2 business days of registration OR within 90 days of the live portion of the course

Register for the on-line Acute Lumbar course today! www.iaom-us.com

Cancellation Policies: Refunds, less 15% administrative fee, are allowed only when written cancellation is received at least 30 days prior to the day of the course OR tuition monies may be transferred to another IAOM course. A $40 re-registration fee applies to tuition transfers. A no-show fee of 50% is applicable. These policies are strictly enforced.